Hi Brian

Thanks for your enquiry.

In the time between receiving your enquiry and writing this E-mail I have had to focus almost exclusively upon another project-related matter. Nevertheless, during this period your enquiry has been dealt with and turned around by my colleague Dr Paul Blackmore (Cc'd into this message)

Attached is our proposal for undertaking the work requested (BRE Proposal P122264, dated 22nd December 2021); I hope it is what you are expecting. I have also attached BRE's Standard Terms and Conditions for your information.

If you are happy to accept this quotation, please sign the acceptance slip (within the proposal) and send it back to me.

If you have any further questions about this matter, please do not hesitate to contact myself or Paul.

I hope to hear from you soon.

Yours sincerely

Dear Gordon,

I hope this email find you well.

Please find attached a formal quote letter for a wind/microclimate assessment for the above referenced outline application. You will note that this application is the other (northern) half of site allocation CR11E, which I believe you helpfully provided a series of reports on the adjoining southern site at 80 Caversham Rd, Reading (182252) for my colleague Jon Markwell in the recent past.

If you require any further information of have any queries over this instruction, please do not hesitate to be in touch. I look forward to hearing from you.

Best regards,

Brian
