Comment: I can see no reason for a public house or a take away to be included in this redevelopment - there are plenty of both in the local area. The loss of a large supermarket (Aldi) and general store (The Range) will be a great disadvantage to the area. Both are well used and their removal is likely to mean more people travelling by car to do their shopping either in Reading or Caversham. Given that my understanding from the planning exhibition is that there will be no resident parking in this development, the new residents will have limited options.
