Comment: Please, please, please could Aldi (or Lidl) be given space in the new development because elderly people or those not in good health without cars (such as myself) will find it VERY difficult to have to travel further afield for basic necessities and to carry them home. Elderly and chronically ill people are often on a low income and cannot afford to shop at Tesco or Sainsbury so please could you ensure one of the discount supermarkets is given retail space in the new development. Thank you.
